Financial Planning Week® Declared in Augusta, Georgia

Augusta, Georgia...October 5, 2009... Augusta Mayor Deke Copenhaver has issued a proclamation declaring October 5 – 11, 2009, as Financial Planning Week in Augusta, Georgia. (photo attached)

Financial Planning Week, strongly supported by the Financial Planning Association® (FPA®), will consist of a series of public events and educational seminars throughout the country that are designed to help individuals discover the value of financial planning and understand the financial planning process.

As part of Financial Planning Week in Augusta, the Financial Planning Association of Georgia (www.fpaga.org) will present a program entitled “Real World Retirement Planning” on October 8th, at 6:30 p.m. in Allgood Hall at Augusta State University. The public is welcome to attend this free educational workshop.

FPA of Georgia, along with other FPA chapters across the country, will strive to promote the value of financial planning during Financial Planning Week. FPA of Georgia, with 750 members, has exciting plans underway for the week throughout the state. Please visit the FPA of Georgia’s website at www.fpaga.org for a complete listing of the week’s events.

FPA is the leadership and advocacy organization connecting those who provide, support and benefit from financial planning. FPA is the Heart of Financial Planning™ and represents a promise of financial well-being, hoping to create a world where everyone thrives and prospers. FPA has 96 chapters throughout the country representing more than 28,500 members involved in all facets of providing financial planning services. FPA is the community that fosters the value of financial planning and advances the financial planning profession.

For more information on FPA’s Financial Planning Week, please visit www.FinancialPlanningWeek.org or call 770-516-8322 OR 800.647.6340. For information about the events scheduled for Georgia please contact James Daniel, CFP® at 678-566-3711.
